UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA
UNITED STATES V. TIFFANY TIARRA HENDERSON, 2:18CR00356

---

SUMMARY IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR SUMMONS
January 24, 2023

On June 23, 2020, the Court sentenced Henderson to 12 months and 1 day, per count, concurrent followed by 3 years of supervised release, per count, concurrent. On June 17, 2021, Henderson commenced supervised release in the District of Nevada. Since that time, Henderson has incurred numerous violations while on supervised release.

Henderson started her supervision in 2021 being homeless essentially while working a full-time job. Despite being homeless, Henderson was able to maintain her employment and do reasonably well on supervision making her drug tests and attending treatment. As noted above, her drug and alcohol use didn't really pick up until the summer of 2022. To address the drug and alcohol use, the undersigned increased drug testing frequency and notified her counselor each time she tested positive. The undersigned also met her both her counselors on a monthly basis to discuss her case.

During these monthly meetings, both her counselors expressed concern that maybe she might be using alcohol based upon her conduct during some of their sessions. This suspicion was later confirmed by an alcohol positive test on November 14, 2022 where Henderson submitted a BrAC of .081 and admitted to having a beer prior to going to take her test. The undersigned then requested Henderson's conditions be modified to include alcohol monitoring for 90 days and on December 2, 2022, the Court agreed to the modification.

Since being on alcohol monitoring, Henderson has tested positive for alcohol twice and she missed a breath test on seven (7) separate occasions. To address the continued alcohol use, Henderson was referred to intensive outpatient treatment (IOP) on December 21, 2022 and since that time has already missed two sessions including her first session on December 28, 2022. The undersigned is concerned as recently it appears Henderson has replaced her alcohol use with marijuana use.

During the course of supervision, Henderson has admitted to the undersigned that she suffers from anxiety and admitted to previously using marijuana to address the anxiety instead of medication. The undersigned has reminded Henderson on numerous occasions that she cannot use marijuana while on supervision and that she must find an alternative. The undersigned has given her options in the community on where she can obtain anxiety medication as well and notifying her counselor that she need a prescription for anxiety. Henderson has unfortunately failed to take advantage of these opportunities and has instead attempted to self-medicate.

Given all the violations noted above, the undersigned respectfully requests that a Summons be issued so that Henderson may appear before the Court to address these violations.
